

EHS Medical Record Scanning Solution

One System. One Click. One Logical Place to access complete patient information.

Emerging Systems EHS Medical Record Scanning Solution rapidly digitises, indexes and files paper-based clinical documentation using dedicated scanners or any network scanning device. The system enables easy, secure and concurrent access by clinicians and health information managers. In fact, Emerging Systems EHS Medical Record Scanning Solution provides the platform for a complete electronic medical record (EMR) solution when you are ready through seamless integration with our EHS Clinical Information System using our intelligent electronic forms technology. One System. One Click.

Our Complete Offering

- Proven, rapid, easy to use scanning technology
- Instant, secure access anytime, anywhere for concurrent users
- Integration with Patient Administration, Pathology & Radiology Systems
- EHS Medical Record Scanning Solution is a platform for building a comprehensive Electronic Medical Record

Benefits You Can Expect

- Reduce the costs associated with the administration, storage and management of paper based records
- Reduce organisational and clinical risk by providing clinicians with the ability to access comprehensive patient information in real time, anywhere

Product Features

- High resolution full colour scanning of varying paper sizes and charts
- Barcode recognition for quick identification, tracking and retrieval
- Easy to use indexing and filtering feature
- In-built security using role-based permissions to access documents
- Integrated with your current electronic documents (pathology and radiology results, etc)
- Supports NEHTA security and content rendering specifications
- Allows viewing of PCEHR documents as part of a whole patient record
- Full audit trail capability
- Adheres to Australian Standards for Hospital Medical Records (AS2828)

TAILORED IT SOLUTIONS. REAL HEALTHCARE BENEFITS.